

In addition to meeting our language and academic requirements, you must be able to finance your education. Reading and completing both pages of this Certificate will help you, we hope, to devise an acceptable funding plan. Please remember that we need original documentation sent directly from the source(s) of funding. Send this form (and request that all supporting documents be sent) to the Office of International and Exchange Programs, New Mexico Tech, 801 Leroy Place, Socorro, New Mexico 87801, USA.

Please type or print.

If you plan to bring dependents with you, you will need to certify an extra $7,138 for your spouse and $6,246 for each child per year of your academic program.

Meeting Estimated Expenses

Before we can issue visa eligibility documents, we need to know that you will have sufficient financial support to complete your educational program at Tech. Please consult the enclosed sheet entitled “Estimated Costs.” There you will see Chart A, the costs for the current year, and Chart B, the estimated costs for the coming year.

On the next (reverse) page, you will see a grid, which must be completed to show the sources of funding that you will use to finance your education. The totals for each of the years (usually four) of your educational program must equal or exceed the estimated expense for your first year at Tech (see Chart B on the “Estimated Costs” sheet).

In computing your financial resources, remember that students holding F-1 (standard student) visas or J-1 (exchange visitor student) visas generally may not work off campus. Part-time on-campus employment (maximum 20 hours per week) is usually available; however, compensation for this employment, while helpful, is not sufficient to cover tuition and fees. Please note that spouses of F-1 students cannot work in the United States under any circumstances.

Important Note to Private or Family Sponsors:

Privacy laws in the United States prevent us from divulging any information about a student’s enrollment, the courses chosen, or the grades earned — even to the student’s parents — without the explicit consent of the student. However, it is understandable that those who are giving financial support would wish to know about the student’s progress from time to time. To get this information, you may require the student to sign a “consent form” in our Registrar’s office, specifying that educational information about progress and grades be shared with you when you request it. Alternatively, you may ask your student to obtain official transcripts and send them to you. Transcripts are available at any time and they contain the most up-to-date information after the close of each term. Spring semester ends in mid-May, summer term ends in early August, and fall semester ends in mid-December.
